B. Promotion and Tenure Committee, Revisited (Readey) - The following was discussed:

12.8 PROMOTION AND TENURE COMMITTEE

12.8.1 Function

The Promotion and Tenure Committee shall be responsible for evaluating the qualifications of all candidates for promotion and/or tenure and all candidates for tenured employment and providing advice and recommendations thereon to the VPAA.

12.8.2 Membership

The membership of the Promotion and Tenure Committee shall consist of six full-time, tenured, full professors or full librarians. Neither multiple representatives from the same academic department/division nor department heads/division directors shall be permitted to serve on the committee. The membership of the committee should equitably represent the diverse range of faculty disciplines at CSM.

12.8.3 Method of Operation

The VPAA shall appoint the chairperson of the Promotion and Tenure Committee. A committee member who is a member of the same department as a tenure and/or promotion candidate under consideration shall be excluded from all participation in the deliberations of the committee with regard to that candidate. The committee shall meet at least once during the spring semester and at any other time deemed necessary by the committee to effectively conduct its business. Two-thirds of the voting members present at a meeting shall constitute a quorum sufficient to permit the committee to conduct its business. All disputed procedural issues that arise regarding the conduct of the meetings of the committee shall be resolved according to Robert's Rules of Order.

12.8.4 Method of Appointment

Promotion and Tenure Committee members shall be appointed by the VPAA from a list of candidates provided by the Faculty Senate. The list shall include at least twice as many names as there are vacancies on the committee.

12.8.5 Terms of Appointment

All Promotion and Tenure Committee members shall serve staggered three-year terms. A minimum of three years must lapse before a former member may be re-appointed to the committee. It was moved by Underwood and seconded by Klusman to endorse the Promotion and Tenure Faculty committee as presented by Readey as a replacement for the present Department Head Promotion and Tenure Committee. The motion passed unanimously.

C. Calendar Committee (VanTyne) - It was the consensus of the Faculty Senate to forward the names of Ramona Graves from Petroleum Engineering and Karl Nelson from Engineering to the President for appointment to serve on the Calendar Committee.
